The Cheapest Goods Yet.

IN our last advertisement, we thought we would give a full description of our neat and beautiful stock of goods-now we don't see proper to put the printer to the trouble of mentioning all the different articles, therefore we say, if there is one or any merchant in this town who can beat us in the way of selection and selling cheap, we are willing to give them our hats. Ladies and gent emen we trust you will give us a call at our old stand, on Commercial R. w. between Mr Leffingwell's, and Messrs. Whites' stores. Now please come and see before you buy elsewhere, and we leave it to you to decide who wins the hats.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, ron 1850.

"The Book of the Nation."

THE OLDEST MAGAZINE IN AMERICA. Published by the present Proprietor for Twoaty Years.

EDITED BY MRS. SARAH / HALE.

Comparison between "Godey" and the other

Phyladelphia Monthlies. In 1849, the Lady's Book gave 916 page which is 116 more than one, and 148 page more than the other Philadelphis monthly-He gave 281 engravings—among which were 20 colored, and 93 full page—which is 136 ore than one, and 180 more than the other. We gave, in each number, a piece of music printed separately on thated paper, making 24 pages, or 12 pieces in a year. To show the cheapness of the Lody's Book, this same music.

bought separately at the music stores, would ost exactly the price of the whole year's subemption-$3. Some of our peculiar Embellishments.

Ladies' Work Table-which comprises very kind of Neediework, Embroidery, Knifting, Netting, Crotchet, Patterns for Caps, Chemisettes, Children's clothes, Wedding Dresses, In-door and Out-door costumes; Birds of America; Colored Flower Plates; Model Cottages and Furniture; Fashionable do.; Lace-Work; Vignette Plates at the head of articles, etc. etc. All the above are illustrated by engravings.

The Costumes of ail Nations, With descriptions by Mrs. Hale. Most of the old features of the Book that were so popular last year, will be retained, and new ones added as they may suggest themselves to the publisher.

A New Novel, by W. Gilmore Simms, will be one of the features for 1850. OUR READING MATTER.

We have long stord at the head of the magazine world for our contributions; they are always moral and instructive, and such as may be placed before a family without hesitation. This department is under the control of Mrs. Sarah Josepha Hale, whose name alone is a sufficient guarantee for the propriety of the Lady's Book. We may say the same of our engiavings. We will never, as is done by a cotemporary, publish indecent model-artist pictures, such as no parent would allow a child to look at.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for 1850 shall surpass that of 1849, and exceed all magazines-past, present and to come.

PROSPECTUS OF THE THE ENICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE.

ENTTED BY LEWIS CAYLORD CEARER.

Tars is pronounced, by the press of America and England, the best Magazine in America.' It has now completed its thirty-fourth volume, and in its list of upward of a hundred contributors, are found the names of every distinguished writer, male and female, in America, with several equally prominent of Great Britain, Turkey, Sweden, etc. A new volume will commence with the first day of January, 1850 .-The following notices of the KNICKER-BOCKER are from the American and English press, to which might be added hundreds of others.

The last Knickerbocker is exceedingly good. Some of the articles are worthy o BLackwoon's palmiest days. The Editor's to ble is in Mr. Clark's happiest vein; varied an-racy in a remarkable degree. —N. Y. Commer cial Adv.

'The Knickerbocker seems to increase in attraction as it advances in age. It exhibits a monthly variety of contributions unsurpassed in number or ability !- Nat. Intelligencer.

The Knickerbocker is one of the most valuable Magazines of the day, and outstrips all competition in the higher walks of literature. Albany Argus.

The Kniekerbocker Magazine is now bewond a question the magazine of the country. Whoever wishes his money's worth, and some thing over, let him subscribe now to Old Knick,' and our word for it, the Editor's Table alone will amply satisfy his expectations. It is not a periodical to be lightly glanced over and thrown by, but it forms a library book to save and re-read. A set of the Knickerbecker, bound up in volumes, on the shelves of one of our popular libraries, is more consulted (so the llar work ?- Boston Daily Transcript.

THE LONDON EXAMINER .- This very cla ? er Magazine is the pleasantest periodical in the United States. Its articles, which are numerous and short, various and interesting, are well worthy of imitation by our Magazines on this side of the Atlantic.

LONDON 'MORNING CHRONICER.'- Judgine from the numbers before us, we are inclined to consider this the best of all the American literary periodicals. Its contents are highly interesting, instructive and amusing?

Reduction in price to Clubs.

The publisher has determined to do everything in his power to bring the Knickerbocker within the means of all. and invites the attention of those who feel an interest in circulating the best American literature, to the following terms to clubs, viz:

For 5 copies to one address, 60 00

Post Masters throughout the United States are invited and requested to act as agents. To all those who may interest themselves in getting up clubs, we will send a copy free so long as they keep up, and remit regularly the yearly payment.
To the Subscribers and all interested in our Work. The publisher desires to avail bims self of this opportunity to thank those who have manifested their unabated interes: in the Knickerbocker, by sending subscribers. Quite a number have done so, and no doubt with a very slight effort on the part of some friends, our Book will be sent, and a copy of either of the list might be doubled. As a further in above magnificent prints sent to each subducement for this effort on the part of scriber, and an extra copy of the "Book" and an engraving to the person sending the club our patrons, we wish to say, that no They can, in all cases, select which they pains or expense will be spared to enhance the value of the work, and our pages will prove that our readers will receive at least as large a share of benefit from our increased means as we could expect ourselves.
